Dear Parishioners: thank you to one-and-all for being part of our Jubilee of Mercy Pilgrimage to the Cathedral in London! I am sure the blessings of this Holy Year will resonate for a long time to come — what an inspiration by Pope Francis! There is so much happening on the ecumenical level — with the Pope’s visit to Sweden, my little adventure with Zurich Memorial Church next week and the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, this January 18-25. (Remember when that new, all Ladies of the rosary were all scared of all the people in our lunchtime gatherings — we’ll see what their soup is like — and Pastor Nadine) from St. Peter’s Lutheran is positively alive with ideas for marking the 500th Anniversary of The Reformation. Please plan to attend, or at least pray your way along that week! (Resources are available at www.councilofchurches.ca) Fr. Peter Keller will return to cover my absence, so he’ll be here to bless the Bibles on Bible Sunday: if there’s someone you know in Grade 4 (anywhere!), please let them know that our C.W.L./K of C are distributing free Bibles that day. During these last weeks of the Liturgical Year, we will again focus on The Last Things: death, judgement, Heaven & Hell. If you think this might be unnecessary, ask yourself if you’ve ever heard someone say “I’ll die….”: if you’ve heard that, the chances are people are still not clear on what lies ahead! During the month of November, please continue to list all the Faithful Departed in our parish: Book of Life: I will continue to pray for those in our books at each Mass, and we will pray the Prayer for the Departed at the end of the General Intercessions. The great Season of Advent beckons! Please start thinking about who you will want to baptize in the wilderness. Have a blessed week! (Pray for me on retreat, as I lift our parishes up in prayer.) Fr. Matt
